BASIC EQUITATION AND RIDING SKILLS

Basic Equitation/Riding Skills- Good equitation is vital to mounted police work. The correct and consistent application of aides ensures control and the correct movement of the horse. A balanced rider is capable of performing patrol functions in a safe manner.

Student has been instructed on the following techniques for riding. Student will demonstrate:

Mounting

- Always do a safety check before mounting
- Technique
- Capable of mounting from both sides

Dismounting

- Technique
- Slide off don't step off
- Prevents foot catching in stirrup and being drug

Mounted Police Basic Training Course
Basic Equitation/Riding Skills
Assessment

1.12 Basic Equitation and Riding Skills - MPD Mounted

Gaits -A gait is a particular natural or acquired way of moving, characterized by a distinctive rhythmic movement of the four feet and legs.

Aids for the walk

- Look up - where you want to go
- Squeeze with your lower legs - calves
- Hands go forward to follow the movement of the head
- Verbal cue "walk on"

--

Aids for the turn

- Look where you want to go
- Sequence of head, shoulders, hands and hips follow

Aids for the back

- Squeeze with lower legs hold rein pressure with hands
- Step release step release not a constant pull back
- Verbal cue "back"

--

Aids for the trot

- Look where you want to go
- Shorten reins
- Squeeze with your lower legs - calves
- Hands need to remain still

Sitting trot

- Loose joints absorb the shock and bouncing
- Move your hips in the 2 beat rhythm of the gait
- Cavalry drill done at sitting trot

Posting trot

- Alternate between half-seat and sitting
- o Half seat is jump position
- In the 2 beat rhythm of the gait

Canter

- Sit deep and tall
- Outside leg moves back 4 inches and squeezes
- Common mistake is to pull back on the reins prevents your horse from cantering
- Move your hips in 3 beat rhythm of the gait
- Leads- left lead and right lead

The stop

Mounted Police Basic Training Course
Basic Equitation/Riding Skills
Assessment

DIRECTED PATROL / BAR CLOSE SUMMARY

Event Bullets

The snow didn't keep MP away from bar closing nor did it lighten the crowds. MP assisted with a fight at Dream night club, with the problem patron being sent. Arrested one for disorderly conduct. The crowds lingered, turning MP officers and their mounts into the snow creatures. MP officers indulged Sgt. Ryan who was making his last official ride with the unit and powered through the snow and cold to complete the shift. Ground support was excellent as always. MERRY XMAS!

MN POST Affidavit of Attendance - Mounted Police Equitation Refresher 2 Day

TRAINING COURSE INFO

Beginning July 1, 2016, the POST Board will maintain continuing education credits for each officer who attends POST approved training. Continuing Education Sponsors are required to submit this "Affidavit of Attendance" form within 2 weeks after each training session. Even though the POST Board is maintaining continuing education credits, sponsors must continue to maintain a list of licensed peace officers and part-time peace officers who have successfully completed this course. We encourage sponsors to submit the "Affidavit of Attendance" via E-mail at POSTBoard.Continuing.Education-Rosters@state.mn.us. We will also accept the rosters by mail or fax. This form can be found on the POST Board's website at www.post.state.mn.us under "Forms."
